

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Mitch Albom, Howard Dean, and Hank Haney Added to Linkage's Global Institute for Leadership Development Lineup

Burlington, MA (June 14, 2010) – Linkage's 14th annual Global Institute for Leadership Development (GILD) will feature some of today's most prominent thought leaders, business gurus and authors; most notably: Mitch Albom, best-selling author of Tuesdays with Morrie and Have a Little Faith; Howard Dean, former Governor of Vermont and President of the Democratic National Committee; and Hank Haney, Tiger Woods' former golf coach and host of The Haney Project.

Mitch Albom, award-winning newspaper columnist and best-selling author, will address how to become a more successful leader by evoking trust. Howard Dean, former six-term governor and founder of Democracy for America, will discuss how to leverage different leadership styles to create a more profitable organization. Top-ranked golf coach Hank Haney will speak on producing results by setting appropriate goals, monitoring progress, and driving flawless execution.

Scheduled for October 17-22, 2010 at the Desert Springs Marriott Resort and Spa in California, GILD is a proven program for transforming employees into first-class leaders and has been ranked the #1 leadership development program in the world for four consecutive years by Leadership Excellence magazine. Founded upon a competency-based model co-developed with Warren Bennis, the Institute combines a five-day immersion experience with a year of ongoing education and support.
