LINKAGE ANNOUNCES NEW GLOBAL PARTNER

Burlington, MA (July 21, 2010) - Linkage, a global organizational development company that specializes in leadership development, recently announced a new global partner – Bermuda. Linkage Bermuda will provide Linkage’s signature leadership and organizational development programs to the local business community on the island.

“Bermuda is fast becoming an interesting hub for large financial service companies and has a prospering corporate culture. We are very excited to add Linkage Bermuda to our growing Linkage Global Partner Network,” said Dana Davidson, Vice President of International Partnerships at Linkage.

Felicia Rickards, BSc, MA, has been appointed to lead Linkage Bermuda. “I am ecstatic to partner with a network of such broad talent. Linkage programs and strategic partners are globally respected and I look forward serving clients in Bermuda and the Caribbean,” stated Rickards.

Rickards received her Bachelor of Science degree in psychology and sociology from Indiana State and her Master of Arts in business development and human resource development from Webster University. She is a successful business development consultant and personal development coach with experience in human resources, administration and operations, employee benefits and finance, business development, and coaching.

Linkage Bermuda joins a network of 11 other Linkage global partners worldwide. For more information on the Linkage Global Partner Network, click here or call 781-402-5555.
